

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Four Winds Blowing on the World

There are four gospels and only four, neither more or less: four like the points of the compass, four like the chief directions of the wind. The Church, spread all over the world, has in the gospels four pillars and four winds blowing wherever people live.

These four gospels are in actual fact one single Gospel, a fourfold Gospel inspired by one Spirit, a Gospel which has four aspects face of a man," undoubtedly referring to the coming of the Lord in human nature. And, "the fourth has the aspect of a flying eagle," with a clear allusion to the grace of the Spirit hovering over the Church. [cf. Ez. 1:10; Rev.4:7] The four Gospels correspond to these symbols. Christ is at the center of them

John actually speaks of his kingly and glorious Sonship to the Father in his open-

Dormition

THIS WEEKEND our Church continues to mark the Great Feast of the Dormition (The Falling Asleep) of Mary, the Mother of God. Known also as the Assumption (August 15), this ancient holyday teaches us that Mary did not suffer a normal death and corruption of body, but simply fell asleep and was taken at once to heaven by her Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ. We will honor Mary this weekend in our hymns and prayers for giving birth to Our Savior and Lord Jesus.

ON THURSDAY, SEP. 5, we will have two very important meetings. The Parish Auxiliary will meet at 6 pm in the Hall to prepare for the fall-winter Catering Ministry schedule. And the Parish Pastoral Council will meet at 7 pm in the Hall to make plans and offer advice in regard some special events and programs.

THE FIRST CATERED EVENT of the fall season will be a large wedding on Saturday, Sep. 14. We will a lot of extra help for this affair, so please plan to come and help us Sep. 14.

OUR PARISH FAMILY DAYS and Homecoming Weekend will be held on Saturday and Sunday, Sep. 21-22. We invite and urge to attend every par-

OUR PARISH SUNDAY SCHOOL will have Registration on Sunday, Sep. 22, and the first formal class on Sunday, Sep. 29. It is our policy that every parish child must attend Sunday School, from Pre-School to Highschool.

ALL OUR SCHOOL TEACHERS AND STAFF will meet on Wednesday, Sep. 11, at 6:30 pm in the Rectory to prepare for the new school year. We trust that all our terrific volunteer catechists and administrators will be with us Sep. 11 for this gathering.

DORMITION TROPAR: O Mother of God, in giving birth to Christ you preserved your virginity. And after your Dormition you did not abandon us. You passed away to eternal life, being yourself the Mother of Life, Jesus Christ. By your prayers, save our souls by the power of Jesus Christ. GLORY BE TO THE FATHER...

DORMITION KONTAK: O Mother of God, you are a perpetual help by your prayer, an infallible hope of refuge. The tomb and death could not detain you, for He Who became man in your womb has now transferred to life the one who was the Mother of Life, Mary.

DORMITION PROKIMEN: My soul glorifies the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God, my Savior, amen.

Love, Fr. Ronald
